

Call for tenders: video makers and editors

to create videos for promotional purposes and online learning in the context of hate crime and hate speech

September 2022

Background

The Facing Facts Network is a multi-disciplinary and inter-institutional group of members that works to better understand and address hate crime and hate speech in Europe through research, training and advocacy. We are seeking someone who can produce videos to promote our work and support our e-learning professionally. The chosen supplier must be able to invoice within the EU.

The main types of services needed are:

- Develop a concept note for the videos with the team;
- Record and edit videos during events for promotional use (3 min);
- Produce promo teasers for the website and social media (45 sec);
- Edit videos of webinars/ explanatory videos for online learning;
- Produce videos with animation and graphic storytelling (2-3 min);

Requirements for each project:

- Take into account existing visual guidelines;
- Use licensed music;
- Be available for feedback and be responsive upon project completion for 4-5 review rounds;
- Keen to work in cooperation with the project team/partners;

Documents to be submitted for the tender:

- statement of interest;
- Portfolio of work and clients;
- description of services;
- indicative pricing for tasks described per hour and/or per day;

The quality of the bids will be assessed by considering:

- bidder's expertise in video production;
- bidders expertise in storytelling;
- record of previously delivered work in relation to the task described;
- quality of previous work or services rendered.

How to Apply
