Facing Facts is led and coordinated by CEJI - A Jewish Contribution to an Inclusive Europe since 2011.

A MULTI-STAKEHOLDER NETWORK TACKLING HATE CRIME AND HATE SPEECH.

SINCE 2011

THE FACING FACTS NETWORK, which emerged from the Facing Facts initiative in 2021, is coordinated by CEJI - A Jewish Contribution to an inclusive Europe. The Facing Facts Network is an EU-funded network that encompasses a broad coalition of civil society organisations and public authorities working across communities and institutions to transform understandings of and responses to hate crime and hate speech in Europe.

OUR NETWORK

The Facing Facts Network counts over 30 MEMBERS in 17 COUNTRIES that are dedicated to tackle hate crime and hate speech in Europe.

The Network is shaped by mutual learning and the expertise of each member organisation in the field of hate crime, hate speech and discrimination. Facing Facts Network members are specialised in different grounds of discrimination, the majority of them working with an intersectional approach.

WHAT WE DO: TRAINING, RESEARCH, ADVOCACY

Are you interested in developing an online course on our eLearning platform?

We share with our members the decades of training experience of CEJI and Facing Facts Online and offer the possibility to co-develop online courses on hate crime and hate speech.

Would you like to access evidence-based research?

We share research activities in the field of online learning, hate crime and hate speech with our members. Our systems-thinking approach is widely used and acknowledged to develop collaborative responses to hate crime and hate speech.

Do you want to join an influential voice at the EU-level?

Building on the exchange and expertise of our members, we inform current policies, strategies and practices to combat hate crime and hate speech at the national and European level, working with international organisations and European Union institutions.

OUR VISION

A Europe where fundamental rights are secured for all and where victims of hate crime and hate speech can get access to increased support, protection and justice.
