"The wealth of our country and our institutional system resides notably in the fact that we have turned our diversity into a strength."

King Philippe of Belgium, 21 July 2013
Socio-cultural diversity exists in many forms and in all places. It can be a source of tensions or it can be a source of strength: for individuals, organisations, neighborhoods and society as a whole. Everyone has a role to play in finding the treasure of diversity. It is a work that must take place in each person’s closest spheres of influence: families, friends, neighbourhoods, schools, administrations and workplaces.

CEJI* training courses provide the awareness and skills to navigate the Diversity Treasure Map.
