Established in 1990, CEJI is a Brussels-based NGO working in the field of diversity education and anti-discrimination advocacy. Our work affirms the uniqueness of each person's identity, supporting the UN Declaration on Human Rights to protect individuals so that they can reach their fullest potential. We have a diverse staff and wide range of partners working across the European Union.

More than 8,000 multipliers have been trained over the last 15 years with CEJI's programmes, impacting an unquantifiable number of youth and adults in formal and non-formal education contexts. # Belieforama

A panoramic approach to issues of religion and belief

RELIGIOUS DIVERSITY & ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

The objectives of the 'Religious Diversity and Anti-Discrimination' training programme are to raise awareness of the uniqueness of each individual's religion and belief identity and facilitate dialogue and sharing of experiences in the area of religion and culture.

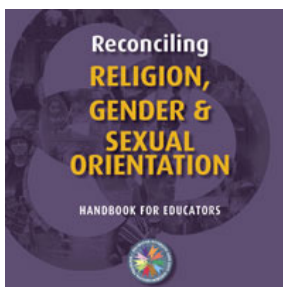

In addition, participants will gain an increased understanding of concepts and issues related to religion and belief diversity, and, be able to recognise contemporary manifestations of stereotyping, prejudice and discrimination related to religion.

Participants will develop individual skills for creating inclusive intercultural environments.

DIVERSITÉ DES CROYANCES ET DES VALEURS

Les objectifs du cours sont: accroître la conscience de l'unicité de l'identité religieuse ou culturelle individuelle; faciliter le dialogue et le partage des différentes expériences dans le domaine des religions, croyances et cultures; améliorer la compréhension des participants au sujet des concepts et questions relatifs à la diversité religieuse et aux croyances; permettre aux participants de reconnaître les manifestations contemporaines des stéréotypes, des préjugés et des discriminations relatives à la culture, à la religion, aux convictions; mieux appréhender la complexité et la richesse de la diversité religieuse, spirituelle et culturelle.

RECONCILING RELIGION, GENDER & SEXUAL ORIENTATION

Any examination of the challenges faced by those living in religiously diverse societies shows that some of the most sensitive topics revolve around issues of gender and sexuality, i.e. the role of men and women, sexual and reproductive rights, and conflicts of rights (real or perceived) between religious rights and gay rights.

We need to find productive ways to transform the discourse around these issues, raise awareness of other perspectives and views, and find ways in which they can be reconciled so that all people can express their full identity with mutual respect for our rights and responsibilities.

OVERCOMING ANTISEMITISM / OVERCOMING ISLAMOPHOBIA

The objectives of these training courses are to increase awareness of Jewish and Muslim people, their cultures and religions, and to increase understanding of what antisemitism and islamophobia are and how they are manifested.

In addition, we explore contemporary and historical manifestations of antisemitism and islamophobia, and issues of diversity and discrimination in general.

Participants will develop skills and strategies for confronting antisemitism and islamophobia, while creating inclusive environments for all.

FACILITATION SKILLS

This module is designed for educators who seek to gain a deeper understanding of their role as facilitators of learning. Participants will develop facilitation skills, gaining techniques, tips and methods for increasing their effectiveness with the groups with whom they work.

The course will cover different frameworks and models within which to analyse people's behaviour and help to determine options for intervening in complex situations.

TAKING ACTION

This training programme supports trainers and participants in the development and implementation of their personal, professional, community and organisational action plans.

It is also relevant for people who wish to deepen their capacity to facilitate action planning with various groups on various issues.
